OILED STREETS ARE REQUESTED BY MANY PEOPLE

Board of Works Has Requests From Residents Nearly Every Day.

Traction Company Will Now
Sprinkle Tracks.

CALDWELL BRIDGE REPAIRED.

That the oil being used on the streets of Paducah is a success is demonstrated by the great many petitions the board of public works is receiving every day from residents asking that their street be sprinkled with it. When the first oil was spread, there was a little kicking, which lasted probably a day, or until the value of it was plainly seen, and since then nearly every portion of town has asked for oiled streets. The board received another car of oil today, which will be the last need this year, and will oil the following streets:

Broadway, from Fountain avenue to the limit; Fountain avenue from Broadway to Monroe; Sixth from Clay to Trimbler; Monroe from Ninth to Twelfth; Fifth from Kentucky avenue to the N. C. & St. L. depot.

The traction company, at the request of the board of works will now sprinkle its tracks on the entire system, excepting on the improved streets. It will try a tar composition it has, and if this is not satisfactory, oil will be used. This will do much to allay the dust, as nothing stir it up as much as the swiftly moving street cars.

At the request of the board of works, the I. C. and the N. C. & St. L. will lay plank in their tracks at every street crossing, and the work has already been started.

The board of public works has done splendid work this season on all of the streets, and will have them in good condition for the winter weather. Today the lumber was received to repair Caldwell street bridge and the work will be done at once.

TRIGS UNIONS TO "GO SLOW."

Building Trades Head Deplores Haste in Sympathy Strikes.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 13.—Conservation of action on the part of the labor organization under his supervision was the keynote of the annual address of James Kirby, president of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor, at the second annual convention of the department.

"While we cannot for one moment surrender our right to take sympathetic action where a sister organization is in peril," he said, "yet oftentimes building trades councils are prone to hasty action on the theory that quick action must be taken or the job on which the work is being done may be completed."

"Admitting that on small buildings this may be true, I am of the opinion that it would be better to complete the job on which the contention arose, providing a repetition can be prevented, than to endanger the dissolution of the council."

NEW SUFFRAGE PLANS BARRED.

Mrs. Belmont Will Try to Capture New York Legislature.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 13.—W. R. Hunter, of New York, arrived here as a personal representative of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont in the suffrage movement. He came to talk with women's rights advocates as a part of a general plan evolved by Mrs. Belmont to capture the next assembly in behalf of woman suffrage.

Mr. Hunter says Mrs. Belmont realizes that the methods hitherto employed are useless and that the campaign must be systematic and must have preparation, guidance and system.

As a result she has instituted a new form of campaign, the object being to defeat every nominee for the legislature who does not favor her cause.

COMMERCIAL CLUB DINNER A SUCCESS

TWENTY-FIVE MEMBERS ATTEND FIRST OF SERIES.

AND INTERESTING TALKS ARE FEATURES OF THE EVENT.

The first "Get Together" dinner of the Commercial club, which was held at the Palmer House last night, was a great success indeed. Twenty-five of the fifty members of the association sat down to the splendid dinner that host Stewart Elliott had prepared, at 6:30, and after the coffee and cigars were served the members engaged in informal talks on subjects of interest to the club.

President James C. Litterback presided in his usual happy way, and some very entertaining speeches were made by the following gentlemen:

President Litterback, Earl Palmer, Joe L. Friedman, C. S. Bookwalter, H. B. Wells, J. T. Donover, Chas. K. Wheeler, W. F. Paxton, Saunders A. Fowler, F. L. Hildreth, J. L. Wolf, Mohr Michael, S. B. Caldwell, H. A. Potter, John J. Berry, George McCandless, W. B. Hummel, Harry R. Hank, H. B. Lindsey, Wallace W. C. and W. H. Cornelson.

In his opening address Mr. Litterback heartily approved the idea of having the dinners regularly, and said that they afforded the members an opportunity to get together to exchange and interchange ideas to form better acquaintances and work out the problems that are constantly coming up for the general advancement of the commercial interests of the city.

"We should work as one man for Paducah's good, and while we should not pay any one to locate here, we should strive to make the city so attractive and such a desirable place in which to live, that many will not be content to stay away, but will be attracted to our city for the reason," he said.

Mr. Litterback gave way to Earl Palmer, former president of the club, who spoke at length on the advantages of co-operation, the prospects ahead for the city and the Commercial club.

It was decided to have another dinner of the Palmer on the 26th, and it will be at the noon hour. The president appointed Charles K. Wheeler, Joe L. Friedman and Earl Palmer as a committee to

That Americans can build a strictly racing yacht, while the English must be able to cross the ocean or have to be carried on a freighter in parts. He says he has a design for a yacht that will be faster than the former Shamrock.

Mrs. Brailsford is the wife of a former leader writer on the Daily News who resigned his editorial position a week ago as a protest against the government's treatment of suffragette prisoners.

PASTOR ATTACKS GOV. BROWN FOR LENIENCY IN LIQUOR FIGHT.

Atlanta Baptist Minister Declares Georgia's Executive Should Enforce Law With Soldiers or Design.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 13.—Irritated by the flagrant violation of the prohibition law the Rev. Dr. Broughton, pastor of the lending Baptist church in Atlanta, declares Gov. Joseph M. Brown should enforce the law or resign his office.

"Let the governor take a hand in Savannah and Augusta, and compel them to obey the law," said Dr. Broughton. "Savannah and Augusta have no right to defy the law, and the state has no right to allow them to defy it."

"The state executive should interfere, and if that doesn't do any good, he should send the state militia there. And if he has no right to do that, he should call the legislature together and pass more laws, and if he can't do that he should resign and let Comer, of Alabama, come over here."

"Alabama defied the prohibition law, but Comer called his legislature together and passed a law that has made the large cities of Alabama as dry as any country district. Let Governor Brown do likewise, or quit."

Those present at the dinner were: H. A. Potter, S. B. Caldwell, Mohr Michael, Jos. L. Wolff, C. S. Bookwalter, Muecos Burnett, Jos. L. Friedman, Earl Palmer, J. C. Litterback, W. B. Fowler, W. F. Paxton, Wallace W. C., H. B. Lindsey, Roy L. Culley, H. S. Wells, Chas. Welfie, Harry Hank, J. T. Donover, W. P. Hummel, Geo. McCandless and J. J. Berry.

BISHOP HENDRIX DEDICATED NEW LONE OAK CHURCH

New Methodist Edifice is a Monument to Efforts Rev. J. W. Naylor.

The Bishop Was a Guest in the City.

GOOD WORK AT WICKLIFFE

Bishop Eugene R. Hendrix of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in the city last evening from Wickliffe where he dedicated the new Methodist church of that place yesterday morning. He accompanied the Rev. J. W. Blackard, preaching elder of the Paducah district which includes Wickliffe, and was the guest of Dr. Blackard at the district parsonage, 1104 Jefferson street, last night. A number of friends of Bishop Hendrix, who has visited Paducah on several occasions, called during the evening.

Bishop Hendrix went out to Lone Oak this morning and dedicated the recently completed Methodist church of that section today. The Rev. J. W. Naylor is the pastor of Lone Oak and the church is a splendid monument to his executive ability and the consecrated enterprise of the members. There is no indebtedness on the church. Bishop Hendrix preached a sermon of strength and power. He is a rare pulpit orator, a student with an ever-broadening outlook as well as a leader of men. At Wickliffe yesterday—in addition to the magnificent sermon he delivered, he raised $1880, paying off the entire indebtedness of the church. It was a great day for Wickliffe Methodists.

Bishop Hendrix left this afternoon for Nashville, Tenn., and will hold some Georgia and South Carolina conferences that were to have been presided over by the late Bishop Seth Ward, before convening the Memphis conference in November.

A committee from the official board of the Broadway Methodist church consisting of Messrs. H. C. Rhodes, W. A. Martin and W. L. Young waited on Bishop Hendrix last evening bearing the unanimous request of the board passed at the meeting on Monday evening, that the Rev. G. T. Sullivan be returned as pastor of Broadway church for the next year. Resolutions complimentary to the splendid work of Dr. Sullivan as man and pastor were passed by the board; also of Dr. Blackard's fine record as presiding elder of the district. Dr. Blackard has served the full time-limit of four years and in the Methodist economy, will have to be changed, but Dr. Sullivan can be returned for two more years.

THOSE CLEVELAND OFFICIALS SHOO HIM AROUND TOWN.

Pittsburg, Oct. 13.—Ty Cobb was unable to accompany the Detroit team here last night. This was learned when the Tigers arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. Cobb will arrive about 11:30, en route on his way here via Buffalo.

Explained by Anty Drudge.

Little Miss Rompabout—"Just look, mamma, I tore my frock."

Mother—"Good gracious, and that frock just new! Only washed twice!"

Anty Drudge—"Just those two washings made the tear possible. You boiled the frock, as you do all your clothes, and that softened and weakened its fiber. If you had used Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water, the fabric would not be half rotten and ready to give away the first time it caught in anything."

White clothes are made of vegetable fibres, cotton or flax. Boiling affects them the same way it does other vegetable matter, as potatoes or cabbage. It softens them and weakens the fibre. Boiling will soften even hard wood.

By this you can easily see how your clothes will wear out quicker and tear more easily if you boil and hard-rub them. Wool, which is an animal fibre, is softened just as the fibre of meat in boiling. Fels-Naptha will cleanse your clothes in cold or lukewarm water without any boiling or hard rubbing, and there isn't a single thing in it that will harm the goods.

Your clothes will wear twice as long, and they'll be whiter and cleaner all the time. Try a cake of Fels-Naptha and see. But use it the Fels-Naptha way, according to the simple directions on the red and green wrapper. They'll tell you how to wash all kinds of clothes with Fels-Naptha; wash dishes, clean floors and do many other things with it.

GEORGE MULLIN IS THE BRIGHT STAR

WITH TWO ON BASES FANS CLARKE AND WAGNER.

Detroit Hit When They Counted and Outplayed Pirates at Every Stage.

THE ODDS NOW ARE EVEN.

Detroit, Oct. 13.—Detroit defeated Pittsburgh, 5 to 0, and evened up the count in the world's championship series, each now having two victories. The temperature was at 34 degrees but 17,036 persons braved the freezing blasts and the Detroiters comprising the great majority of the spectators felt well repaid.

The American League champions outclassed their rivals in every department of the game and, the pitching of George Mullin was one of the brightest hits in the baseball history of Detroit. There never was a moment when Mullin was not absolute master of the situation and was at his best with the men on bases. Four hits represented the ability of the visitors, and no two of these were made in the same inning.

A Great Feat.

Mullin performed a feat in the third inning that will live long in the annals of baseball. In the third inning he struck out the mighty Wagner, with two men out and men on second and third. That was a mighty feat, but just previously he had struck out Manager Clarke, a hard hitter, with men on first and second. A double steal on Clarke's third strike moved the men to second and third, where they were when Wagner came to bat. Lefield was also a victim on strikes in this inning, giving Mullin three strikeouts in one session. All told he struck out the visitors ten times.

Detroit scored because it was able to hit when hits spelled runs. Stange, Jennings' oungest catcher, distinguished himself in the second inning by sending Detroit's first two runs across the plate with a drive out of Miller's reach. In the fourth inning Bush's sliding double into the overflood of the crowd in left field scored another run, and it was immediately followed by another two-bagger into the same place by Cobb.

The onslaughts by Detroit in the second and fourth innings drove Lefield, the Pittsburgh star left hander from the slab. He was succeeded by the veteran Philippi, who was able to stem the Detroit tide, although they pressed him hard in the eighth inning. Eight hits were made by the Detroiters and six of those came in two innings when scores were made. Only two were wasted.

Mullin Only Star.

Beside Mullin there was no star on the Detroit team, but their ensemble work was brilliant. Every man did the right thing at the right time. Only one fielding marred an otherwise perfect performance.

The cold apparently affected the Pittsburgh fielding far more than it did Detroit, as the National League champions put up a miserable exhibition in that department. Six errors were charged to the infield, Abstein, Miller and Philippi each getting two. The errors detract little credit from Detroit's performance as only one of them figured in the scoring.

The conclusive victory of Detroit topped Pittsburgh from the position as favorite in the betting. Even money is now offered.

The teams left for Pittsburgh last night where the fifth game will be played today. The sixth game is scheduled here Thursday.

Wagner was helpless. Haas Wagner failed to star. At the bat he was helpless before Mullin. The first time up he drew a base on balls, but was forced out at third. In the third inning saw his memorable strike out. In the sixth he sent a hot liner to Tom Jones in the field, he had two put out, and four assists, but most of them were easy. His best play came in the fourth inning when he fumbled a grounder by Stange for a fraction of a second, recovering quickly and touched second, forcing Tom Jones then threw to first in time to double up Stange. If he had fumbled the grounder for an appreciable time longer, Detroit might have had many more runs, as three runs came after the double play.

Cobb Made One Hit. Cobb made one hit—a two-bagger—and reached first one when he was hit by Lefield. The other two times the Georgia star tried to beat out bunts in front of the plate, but Gibson threw him out both times. In the field he had only one chance and accepted that gracefully.

So thoroughly did Mullin do his work that only six hits were hit to the outfield. Three of these were safe hits, and the other three divided, two flies to Crawford and one to Cobb.

After Pittsburgh was retired one two, three in the first session, Wagner drew a base on balls in the second, Miller struck out. Delehnanty then made the only error for Detroit when he fumbled Abstein's grounder and Wagner moved to second. Will son hit to Mullin, Wagner was forced out at third, Mullin to Morlarity, Gibson was easy, Mullin to Tom Jones, retiring the side.

Had An Opportunity.

Pittsburgh's real opportunity to score came in the third inning, but Mullin stopped them. Lefield started by striking out, but Byrne hit a two-bagger into the left field overflood and Leach drew a base on balls. Clarke struck out but a double steal moved the runners to third and second. The decision of Umpire Evans at third base received much unfavorable comment. Then came the striking out of Wagner and the end of Pittsburgh's chances.

The downfall of Wagner apparently disheartened his team mates. They were as clay in the hands of the great pitching of Mullin during the remainder of the chilly battle. In the fourth Wilson singled to left after two were out, but Gibson was easy. Pittsburgh was retired in order in the fifth and sixth. In the seventh Gibson hit safely to right when two were out, but Philippi struck out Pittsburgh was again retired in order in the eighth, but in the ninth Miller beat out a hunt between Morlarity and Mullin. Abstein and Wilson however, could not advance him.

Broke Lefield's Defense.

Detroit broke Lefield's defense in the first inning, when Cobb was hit by a pitched ball, after two out. Cobb moved to second when Abstein dropped Lefield's throw that caught the Detroit star off first. Crawford ended the inning with a fly to Leach.

The second inning started with Delehnanty being hit by a pitched ball. Morlarity sent him to third with a single to left on a hit and run signal. Tom Jones grounded to Lefield, Delehnanty was run down between third and home by Gibson. Morlarity taking third and Tom Jones second on the play. Stange then singled past Miller and Morlarity, and Tom Jones scored. Mullin forced Stange, Wagner to Miller, and went on to second; Miller threw into the crowd in attempting to complete a double play. The inning ended with D. Jones' easy grounder to Lefield.

The fourth session netted the winners three more runs. Tom Jones beat out a long hunt along third base line as a starter, but was doubled up with Stange. Wagner to Abstein Mullin drew a pass and went to third on D. Jones' hit to left. Mullin scored and D. Jones went to third when Bush hit into the left field overflood for a two-bagger. Cobb smashed another double into the same place, sending D. Jones and Bush across the plate. Crawford ended the inning Lefield to Abstein.

The receipts were $21,103. The grand total receipts for the four games is $123,925, divided as follows:

Pittsburg Fans Dejected.

Pittsburg, Oct. 13.—"After standing all afternoon half frozen and soaked with rain, no wonder a fellow gets mad through when a pitcher who is ordinarily steady, as Lefield, goes up into the air and loses a game for the Pirates," said John B. Harber, Jr., one of Pittsburgh's most rabid ball fans. Today's game, however, is expected to raise the spirits of the dejected fans who discussed the Pirates' slaughter.

Despite the awful weather, it is reported that many persons, hankering and by the side of the fire, are congregated at the general admission gate at Forbe's Field, waiting for the ticket window to open. Two policemen are detailed to keep the rooters in line.

News of Theatres

"Fluffy Ruffles," the merry three-act musical comedy will be at the Kentucky tonight. Clever Florence Gear, sweet of voice as well as of face and figure, is "Fluffy." Miss Gear's delightful performance of "Marrying Mary" last season accounts for the pleasurable anticipations with which our theatregoers look forward to her appearance here this season in "Fluffy Ruffles." A large company of fun makers, with the usual complement of pretty girls, is with Miss Gear.

Little Blair Parker builded better than she knew when she constructed "Way Down East" which comes to the Kentucky tomorrow night, and she has given the American stage a play that will live for years—perhaps forever. The characters in the piece are human beings who live and are to be found in every little settlement in the state of New Hampshire where the action of the play transpires. The play fairly abounds in "Atmosphere" and one can almost smell the fragrant odors of the New Hampshire pines as the delightful and interesting story is unfolded.

HE NEEDS THE MONEY

So Senator Flint Will Quit the Senate and Try to Make a Living.

Los Angeles, Oct. 13.—Senator Frank P. Flint announced unofficially yesterday that when his present term of service expires on March 4, 1911, he will not be a candidate for re-election.

"If I were a rich man," said Senator Flint, "I would like nothing better than to remain in the senate all my life. But I feel that I owe it to my family to get out of politics and gain a competence while I am able."

"My associations in the senate are very congenial indeed; I have practically no opposition for a re-nomination, and the sole reason for contemplating retirement is the urgent necessity of providing for my family."

Son of Founder of Fulton, Ky., in a Serious Condition. Fulton, Ky., Oct. 13.—W. T. Carr, son of the founder of Fulton and one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of this city, has been in a serious condition for the last three days with hemorrhages of the nose. Last night it was thought necessary to send to Memphis for a consulting physician, grave fears being felt for the outcome of the strange malady.

Several weeks ago Mr. Carr suffered a hard fall upon a brick walk badly bruising his nose, and believing that the severe hemorrhages are a result of this accident.

PEARY GIVES OUT HIS CHARGE TODAY

ALL BASED ON THE EVIDENCE OF SOME ESKIMOS.

Says Cook's Eskimos Deceive Cook Did Not Reach the Pole But Turned Back.

THE ESKIMO MAP EVIDENCE.

New York, Oct. 12.—The following statement of Commander Robert E. Peary, which he submitted, together with the accompanying map, to the Peary Arctic Club in support of his contention that Dr. Cook did not reach the north pole, is now made public for the first time. The statement and map have been copyrighted by the Peary Arctic Club.

Introduction by Peary.

Some of my reasons for saying that Dr. Cook did not go to the north pole will be understood by those who read the following statements of the two Eskimo boys who went with him, and who told me and others of my party where he did go. Several Eskimos who started with Dr. Cook from Anorok in February, 1908, were at Etah when I arrived there in August, 1909. They told me that Dr. Cook had with him, after they left, two Eskimo boys or young men, two sledges and some twenty dogs. The boys were I-took-a-shoo and Ah-pel-lah. I had known them from their childhood. One was about 18 and the other about 15 years of age.

On my return from Cape Sheridan and at the very first settlement I touched (Nerke near Cape Chamon) in August, 1909, and nine days before reaching Etah, the Eskimos told me, in a general way, where Dr. Cook had been that he had wintered in Jones Sound and that he had told the white men at Etah that he had been a long way north, but that the boys who were with him, I-took-a-shoo and Ah-pel-lah, said that this was not so. The Eskimos laughed at Dr. Cook's story. On reaching Etah, I talked with the Eskimos there and with the two boys and asked them to describe Dr. Cook's journey to members of my party and myself. This they did in the manner stated below.

(Signed) R. E. PEARY.

(Signed statement of Peary, Bartlett, McMillan, Hornum and Henson, in regard to testimony of Cook's two Eskimo boys.)

The two Eskimo boys, I-took-a-shoo and Ah-pel-lah, who accompanied Dr. Cook while he was away from Anorok in 1908 and 1909, were questioned separately and independently, and were corroborated by Panikpah, the father of one of them (I-took-a-shoo) who was personally familiar with the first third and the last third of their journey, and who said that the route for the remaining third, as shown by them, was as described to him by his son after his return with Dr. Cook.

Notes of their statements were taken by several of us, and no one of us has any doubt that they told the truth.

Their testimony was unshaken by cross-examination, was corroborated by other men in the tribe, and was elicited neither by threats nor promises, the two boys and their father talking of their journey and their experiences.

Parisian Sage, the Hair Grower, is Now Sold in America on Money Back Plan.

It's a mighty good thing for the women of America that Parisian Sage can now be obtained in every town of consequence.

No preparation for the hair has done so much to stop falling hair and eradicate dandruff and make women's hair beautiful as Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is the only certain destroyer of the dandruff microbe which is the cause of 97 per cent of hair troubles.

These pernicious, pestilential and destructive little devils thrive on the ordinary hair tonics.

Parisian Sage is such an extraordinary and quick acting rejuvenator that W. J. Gilbert, who is the agent in Paducah, guarantees it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is most daintily perfumed, it is an ideal preparation, not sticky or greasy.

It is a magnificent dressing for women who desire luxuriant, lustrous hair that compels admiration.

And a large bottle of Parisian Sage costs only 50 cents at W. J. Gilbert's and at leading druggists all over America. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Made in America by Gilman Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who fill mail orders, all charges prepaid.

periences in the same way that they would talk of any hunting trip.

To get more into details: One of the boys was called in, and, with a chart on the table before him, was asked to show where he had gone with Dr. Cook. This he did, pointing out with his finger on the map, but not making any marks upon it.

As he went out, the other boy came in and was asked to show where he had gone with Dr. Cook. This he did, also without making any marks, and indicated the same route and the same details as did the first boy.

When he was through, Panikpah, the father of I-took-a-shoo, a very intelligent man, who was in the party of Eskimos that came back from Dr. Cook from the northern end of Nansen's Strait, who is familiar as a hunter with the Jones Sound region, and who has been in Commander Peary's various expeditions for some 15 years, came in and indicated the same localities and details as the two boys.

Then the first boy was brought in again, and with a pencil he traced on the map their route, members of our party writing upon the chart where, according to the boy's statement, they had killed deer, bear, some of their dogs, seal, walrus and musk-oxen.

The second boy was then called in and the two went over the chart together, the second boy suggesting some changes as noted hereafter.

Finally, Panikpah, the father, was again called in to verify details of the portions of the route with which he was personally familiar.

The bulk of the boys' testimony was not taken by Commander Peary, nor in his presence, a fact that obviates any possible claim that they were awed by him.

Certain questions on independent lines from the direct narrative of the Eskimo boys were suggested by Commander Peary to some of us, and were put by us to the Eskimo boys.

Still later Commander Peary asked the Eskimo boys two or three casual questions on minor points that had occurred to him.

During the taking of this testimony, it developed that Dr. Cook had told these boys, as he told Mr. Whitney and Billy Pritchard, the cabin boy, that they must not tell Commander Peary or any of us anything about their journey, and the boys stated Dr. Cook had threatened them if they should tell anything.

The narrative of the Eskimos is as follows:

They, with Dr. Cook, Francke and nine other Eskimos, left Anorok, crossed Smith's Sound to Cape Sabine, slept in Commander Peary's old house in Payer Harbor, then went through Rice Strait to Buchanan Bay. After a few marches Francke and three Eskimos returned to Anorok.

Dr. Cook, with the others, then proceeded up Fingler Bay, a branch of Buchanan Bay, and crossed Ellesmere Land through the valley pass at the head of Flagler Bay, indicated by Commander Peary in 1898, and utilized by Sverdrup in 1899, to the head of Sverdrup's "Hay Flood" on the west side of Ellesmere Land.

Their route then lay out through this flood, thence north through Sverdrup's "Heureka Sound" and Nansen Strait.

On their way they killed musk-oxen and bear and made caches, arriving eventually at a point on the west side of Nansen Strait (shore of Axel Heberg Land of Sverdrup), south of Cape Thomas Hubbard.

A cache was formed here and the four Eskimo did not go beyond this point. Two others, Koolootwah and Inushito, went on one more march with Dr. Cook and the two boys, helped to build the snow igloo, then returned without sleeping.

(These two Eskimos brought back a letter from Dr. Cook to Francke, dated the 17th of March. The two men rejoined the other four men who had been left behind and the six returned to Anorok, arriving May 7. This information was obtained not from the two Eskimo boys, but from Francke himself, and was known to us in the summer of 1908 when the Roosevelt first arrived at Etah. The information is inserted here as supplementary to the narrative of the two boys.)

After sleeping at the camp where the last two Eskimos turned back, Dr. Cook and the two boys went in a northerly or northwesterly direction with two sledges and twenty odd dogs, one more march, when they encountered rough ice and a lead of open water. They did not enter this rough ice and a lead of open water. They did not enter this rough ice, nor cross the lead, but turned westward or southwesterward a short distance and returned to Heberg Land at a point west of where they had left the cache and where the four men had turned back.

Here they remained four or five days, and during that time I-took-a-shoo went back to the cache and got his gun which he had left there, and a few items of supplies.

When asked why only a few supplies were taken from the cache, the boys replied that only a small amount of provisions had been used in the few days since they left the cache, and that their sledges still had all they could carry, so that they could not take more.

After being informed of the boys' narrative thus far, Commander Peary suggested a series of questions to be put to the boys in regard to this trip from the land out and back to it.

These questions and answers were as follows:

Did they cross many open leads or much open water during this time? Ans. None.

Did they make any caches out on the ice? Ans. No.

Did they kill any bear or seal while out on the ice north of Cape Thomas Hubbard? Ans. No.

Did they kill or lose any of their dogs while out on the ice? Ans. No.

With how many sledges did they start? Ans. Two.

How many dogs did they have? Ans. Did not remember exactly, but something over twenty.

How many sledges did they have when they got back to land? Ans. Two.

Did they have any provisions left on their sledges when they came back to land? Ans. Yes; the sledges still had about all they could carry, so they were able to take but a few things from the cache.

From here they then went south-west along the northwest coast of Heberg Land to a point indicated on the map (Sverdrup's Cape Northwest).

From here they went west across the ice, which was level and covered with snow, offering good going, to a low island which they had seen from the shore of Heberg Land at Cape Northwest. On this island they camped for one sleep.

The size and position of this island, as drawn by the first boy, was criticized by the second boy as being too large and too far to the west, the second boy calling the attention of the first to the fact that the position of the island was more nearly in line with the point where they had left Heberg Land (Cape Northwest) and the channel between Amund Ringnes Land and Elle Ringnes Land.

This criticism and correction was accepted by the first boy, who started to change the position of the island, but was stopped, as Commander Peary had given instructions that no changes or erasures were to be made in the route as drawn by the Eskimos on the chart.

From this island they could see two lands beyond (Sverdrup's Ellef Ringnes and Amund Ringnes Lands). From the island they journeyed toward the left hand one of these two lands (Amund Ringnes Land), passing a small island which they did not visit.

Arriving at the shore of Amund Ringnes Land, the Eskimos killed a deer as indicated on the chart.

The above italicized portion of the statement of the Eskimo boys covers the period of time in which Dr. Cook claims to have gone to the pole and back, and the entire time during which he could possibly have made any attempt to go to it.

The answer of the Eskimo boys to Commander Peary's series of independent questions, showing that they killed no game, made no caches, lost no dogs, and returned to the land with loaded sledges, makes their attainment of the pole on the trip north of Cape Thomas Hubbard a physical and mathematical impossibility, as it would demand the assistance of three men and over twenty dogs during a journey of ten hundred and forty geographical miles on less than two sledge loads of supplies.

If it is suggested that perhaps Dr. Cook got mixed and that he reached the pole, or thought he did, between the time of leaving the northwest coast of Heberg Land at Cape Northwest, and his arrival at Ringnes Land where they killed the deer, we must then add to the date of Dr. Cook's letter of March 17, at or near Cape Thomas Hubbard, the subsequent four or five sleeps at that point, and the number of days required to march from Cape Thomas Hubbard to Cape Northwest (a distance of some sixty nautical miles), which would advance his date of departure from the land to at least the 25th of March, and be prepared to accept the claim that Dr. Cook went from Cape Northwest (about latitude eighty and a half degrees north) to the pole, a distance of five hundred and seventy geographical miles in twenty-seven days.

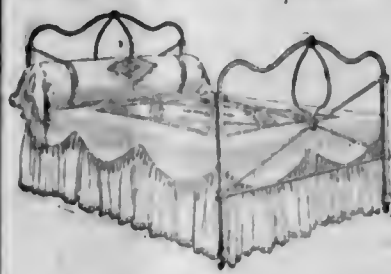

After killing the deer they then traveled south along the east side of Ringnes Land to the point indicated on the chart, where they killed another deer.

They then went east across the south part of Crown Prince Gustav Sea to the south end of Heberg Land, then down through Norwegian Bay, where they secured some bears, but not until after they had killed some of their dogs, to the east side of Graham Island; then eastward to the little bay marked "Eld's Flood" on Sverdrup's chart; then southwest to Hell's Gate and Simons' Peninsula.

Here for the first time during the entire journey, except as already noted off Cape Thomas H. Hubbard, they encountered open water. On this point the boys were clear, emphatic and unshakable. They spent a good deal of time in this region and finally abandoned their dogs and one sledge took to their boat, crossed Hell's Gate to North Kent, up into Norfolk Inlet, then back along the north coast of Collin Archer Peninsula to Cape Vera, where they obtained fresh elder duck eggs. Here they cut the remaining sledge off, that is shortened it, as it was awkward to transport with the boat, and near here they killed a walrus.

The statement in regard to the fresh elder duck eggs permits the approximate determination of the date at this time as about the first of July. (This statement also serves, if indeed anything more than the inherent straightforwardness and detail of their narrative were needed, to substantiate the accuracy and truthfulness of the boys' statement. This locality of Cape Vera is mentioned in Sverdrup's narrative as the place where during his stay in that region he obtained elder ducks' eggs.)

From Cape Vera they went on down into the southwest angle of Jones Sound, where they killed a seal; thence east along the south coast of the Sound, killing three bears at the point noted on the map, to the peninsula known as Cape Sparbu on the map, about midway on the south side of Jones Sound. Here they killed some musk-oxen and, continuing east, killed four more at the place indicated on the chart, and were finally stopped by the pack ice at the mouth of Jones Sound. From here they turned back to Cape Sparbu, where they wintered and killed many musk-oxen.

After the sun returned in 1909 they started, pushing their sledge across Jones Sound to Cape Tenyson; thence along the coast to Clarence Head (passing inside of two small islands not shown on the chart, but drawn on it by the boys), where they killed a bear; thence across the broad light in the coast to Cadogan Flood; thence around Cape Isabella and up to Commander Peary's old house in Payer Harbor near Cape Sabine, where they found a seal cached for them by Panikpah, I-took-a-shoo's father. From here they crossed Smith Sound on the ice, arriving at Anorok.

SAME OLD STORY, SAYS COOK.

Says Map Offered By Peary Proves That Eskimos Kept Their Word.

Cleveland, Oct. 13.—"It is the same old story," said Dr. Cook, when shown Peary's statement, with the map accompanying it.

"I have replied to the points raised a dozen times. The map itself indicates that Eskimos respected their promise made to me. The Eskimos were instructed not to tell Peary, or any of his party, of our trip over the Polar sea. They were told to say we had been far north. They kept their word."

"Whitney has said that, during the cross-examination conducted by Peary and others, the Eskimos did not understand the questions or the map. Their replies were twisted to suit the perverted interests."

"I am not going to enter into an argument, but will bring the Eskimos to New York at my expense and they will prove, as did Whitney, all I have claimed."

A confident smile flickered over Cook's face when shown the accusations. He said: "Rasmussen, who will be here shortly, knows the real story. The Eskimos did not try to deceive him. He was with them 14 days. They told him everything. He speaks Eskimo, is semi-Eskimo himself, and the people have complete confidence in him."

STOMACH TROUBLE CURED.

To anyone suffering with stomach trouble, I will say I was afflicted with it for fifteen years. I got in such condition I had to quit work. I tried Hays' Specific, found relief and went back to work and now hold my former position. I can conscientiously recommend it for stomach trouble. March 16, 1909. L. F. PADUCAH AS A MARKET.

Editor Eagle:—I want to ask you to publish a few lines regarding the controversy going on now between your excellent paper and the Metropolis papers; and in these lines I would ask just a few questions, for them to solve. Why should Metropolis, or even Brookport merchants, complain of people going to Paducah to trade, when said people find it to their interest? Here is a case in point:—Two of our leading farmers in the Fair Play neighborhood wanted to buy together 2 bushels of Timothy and 11 bushels of redtop seed. They first priced them at Metropolis and enquired also at Brookport; which was fair and proper. But feeling that the price was too high, they went to a seed house in Paducah and saved in the neighborhood of $8
—and they say this is not attributed to quality either, as better seed could not be found. Now Mr. Eagle, can you not answer this question why ask your friend Trousdale or Editor W. E. Warr, of Metropolis papers to do so—ask them also, who is to blame for Metropolis not getting the business, when it was offered to
her. —A Subscriber — Brookport Eagle.

The above, even if it did come from the Brookport Eagle, contains a lesson to some of our merchants says the Metropolis Journal-Tribune.
Can it be a fact that outside of three of our dry goods and clothing stores there is not much effort made to secure the country trade and price inducements are very seldom made in goods bought by the farming trade?
We are going to keep on plugging for Metropolis, but it would help a lot if our merchants would go after the trade a little themselves and at least meet Paducah prices. You can't blame people for going to Paducah when they can save $8 on one little order of weeds.

Until we wake up and go after business like Paducah does we are not going to get the business. Every citizen of Metropolis county would rather trade on this side of the river but he is not going to pay a premium to get to do it.

THE PUBLIC FORUM.

DR. COOK IS AS SIMPLE AS A

CHILD.

William T. Stead, the English journalist, was one of the first men to meet Dr. Cook in Copenhagen. Stead is a trained observer of men and events, and his estimate of Dr. Cook carries some weight. In a contribution to The Review of Reviews he says:

Now for the main question:
"What about the man from the north pole? How does he strike you as a man?"

To which I answer, and I think almost all of us who went to Copenhagen would agree with me in replying, that he does not strike us as a man, but rather a child—a native inexperienced child, who sorely needed some one to look after him, and take care of him, and tell him what he ought to do in his own interest.
It was really almost pathetic to see his efforts to readjust himself to the busy, bustling, new environment of modern civilization.

When we were struggling through the crowd at the landing I asked him to let me arrange for him a general interview, at which all the pressmen could be present. "Yes," he said
"but put it off till tomorrow." As if the ravenous maw of the world's press, with its teeming special editions, could wait complacently for twenty-four hours before learning what he had to say? "Why this hurry?" he was always asking, with the absent air of a man who has lived six months at a time in the timeless solitude of the Arctic night. As for his inability to protect his own interests, even in matters of pounds, shillings and pence, it was almost pitiful.

And as he allowed himself to be exploited in money matters, so he displayed an almost infantile inability to see the obvious precautions which he ought to take for his own defense. I think it was this naïveté this often most exasperating inbil-ity on his part to forestall hostile criticism, to pacify ignorant but clamorous interviewers and for "proofs" the nature of which they do not understand, that did as much as anything else to convince everybody of his honesty. He either neglected or threw away the most obvious chances. He had at his absolute disposition the most expert men in Europe, and he rather snubbed them when welcomed offers to help him.
Everything that a clever rogue would do instinctively if he wished to hoax the public Dr. Cook did not do. When he was asked the questions, he answered them simply, without flinch-ing, or dodging, or beating about the bush. Where he had made a mistake he confessed it. But as for making out a good case for himself, or of adopting any ad captandus method of appeal, he could no more do it than a child.

MOVE TO HEAD OFF
FREIGHT ADVANCE.
Cincinnati Conference Will Prepare for Fight Against Any Boost.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Is the bitter controversy of 1908 between the railroads and the shipping interests of the United States over the proposed 10 per cent increase in freight rates about to be renewed?

That the shippers believe the carriers have not abandoned their campaign for advanced rates, which was dropped the first of the year, is indicated by a call for a general meeting of shippers' organizations to be held in Cincinnati on Oct. 19. Plans will be formulated to block any such action on the part of the roads.

The call is issued by thirteen shippers and business men's organizations of Ohio and Indiana, headed by the Receivers and Shippers' association of Cincinnati. Copies of the circular letter which were received in Chicago yesterday show that what are now regarded as the preliminary skirmishes of the controversy on both sides already have taken place.

Circular Arouses the Shippers.

The shippers were aroused by the wide circulation which has been given a pamphlet by C. C. McCain, chairman of the Trunk Line Association, entitled "The Diminished Power of Shipping Power of Railways."

WEASEL SCARED HERE.

Proud Cat Brought His Captive to Show it to Mistress.

Winsted, Conn., Oct. 12.—Teddy,
a cat owned by Mrs. C. N. Harang, of Newton, is a great game cat.
Early in the morning it climbed a back roof, entered the open window of his mistress's chamber, jumped on the bed and purred so loudly it awoke Mrs. Harang.

Teddy had a live weasel and he released it when Mrs. Harang jumped out of bed. As the frightened woman rushed out of her room, screaming, Teddy, also, scared jumped through the window. The weasel hid in a shoe, where it was found and killed by brave members of the family. The weasel was caught by Teddy while robbing the hen roost.

BALLOON INDIANA MISSING.

St. Louis, Oct. 12.—The balloon
New York believed today to be over Indiana, although it is still unreported. Forbes said before he start he expects to land east of Buffalo, N. Y., and smash Lahm's record or return for another trial. There was a twenty-five mile gale at the start and it is still blowing.

A. Holland Forbes, millionaire
New York sportsman and acting president of the Aero Club of America, ascended from the Rutgers street garage in his balloon late Tuesday afternoon in an effort to lift the Lahm cup. He took with him Max Fleischmann, of Cincinnati, who is himself a millionaire, a brother of Julius Fleischmann, former mayor of Cincinnati.

Forbes hopes to reach Canada because of the strong wind blowing from the southeast the last few days.
He took with him a camping outfit and rifles, to provide against the contingency of landing in the forests there.

The effort of Forbes to lift the cup has excited interest throughout the country because of his prominence and that of his aid. It is of especial interest to St. Louis balloon enthusiasts since Forbes told, at the Mor-cottle club Monday night, of his famous fall over the city of Berlin
in the international race of a year ago, when the balloon which he was piloting, with Augustus Post as aid, burst at an altitude of 2,500 feet and plunged down the roof of a house.

man about his past love affairs he is

A BIG CROWD
GREET'S NOMINEES

HAZELLIP AND BARKLEY SPEAK AT MELOER LAST NIGHT.

Hazellip Shows the Hasty Settlement With Smedley Was Costly to County.

THE OFFICIALS NEGLECT DUTY

The eyes and ears of some of the county officials have been closed to the best interests of the tax payers of McCracken county for many months, is a charge made in the debate between Thomas N. Hazellip, Republican nominee, and County Attorney Alben W. Barkley, Democratic nominee for county judge at Melber school house before the largest audience that has been out to hear a discussion of the issues of the campaign.

The hurried settlement of Smed-ley's shortage with the county without the bonding company without a thorough examination into the books of Smedley is becoming the leading issue of the campaign. Mr. Hazellip is on the defensive and seeks to defend the fiscal court as well as himself in the settlement, although in other issues he has tossed "the gant" overboard. Mr. Hazellip charges that the settlement was hurried, and that the receipt covers every dollar deficient by Hiram Smedley for the county. He says that Mr. Barkley had reason to suspect that every man was not honest because there had been irregularities in the county court clerk's office and the sheriff's office before he went into office.

Last night the settlement was gone into thoroughly by both speakers.
The complete story was that in September, 1908, the revenue agent discovered that Smedley had been collecting money for licenses, and not issuing any license, and that Revenue Collector Will M. Hushands discovered it. He went to Mr. Smedley, who pleaded with him not to expose it, as the Democratic primary was on and he (Smedley) sold over to the revenue agent about $250 due on licenses. In the meantime a Louisville paper had published the fact that Smedley was not turning all the money over.

After the election Hushands advertised property on which delinquent taxes were due for sale, and then receipts began to pour into his hands.
Then he filed a suit against Smedley for money due the state and county for delinquent taxes and licenses after he notified the fiscal court verbally. County Attorney Barkley was made attorney for the county in the prosecution of the suit, and his first action was to have the suit dismissed as far as the county was concerned.

Then the settlement was made with the bonding company for $1-586.50, which will cover everything due the county. Mr. Hazellip said, because he announced he had seen the receipt and had the opinion of some of the best lawyers. Then Mr. Haze-llip showed that although the statement was lower, that Mr. Hushands had found over $2,000 due the state for delinquent taxes. After the hurried settlement was made, Mr. Haze-llip showed how the 20 per cent penalty required by law on all shortages was not demanded and that the 10 per cent interest due on the whole amount was not collected by the county officials, but that they wrote out a clear receipt for all shortages, and let the county receive $1,236 into the treasury after Mr. Barkley received his commission of over $300 for collecting it and allowing the bonding company a commission of 3 per cent for being so prompt to pay.
Actual figures Mr. Hazellip showed the officials had closed their eyes to the interests of the county and had paid into the county treasury $1,236 when by an exercise of their duty about $4,000 would have been paid into the treasury. He said the desire of the bonding company to settle the shortage quickly was evidence it knew that there were more funds due Mr. Barkley should have been awake.

In defense to the claim that nothing was known of the further shortage, Mr. Hazellip said Mr. Barkley had every reason to suspect that the county was being defrauded and in his position as the "watch dog" of the treasury it was his duty to investigate, and to go slow in making a settlement. He said it was published in a Louisville newspaper that the first suit of the revenue agent showed that money for licenses was due, and that the report of Professor Smith proved money was due the county to the extent of $16,000.

Then further he said Mr. Barkley admitted he took Smedley's books in which he alleged every cent of the money defrauded on delinquent taxes had been entered.

Mr. Barkley treated the settlement exhaustively and said he had no reason to suspect Smedley was dishonest. Because the law did not require him to go around with a shotgun and investigate every office. He said the stealing had been going on before he went into office and other office holders had not discovered it, and he ought not to be blamed. Mr. Haze-llip denied that Hushands had ever served notice on the fiscal court, and therefore had no right to bring the suit. He said the bonding company stepped into Mr. Smedley's shoes and he thought it was fair to pay the 5 per cent commission.

Mr. Hazellip took up Prof. John D.
Smith's report and showed that the county judge had not drawn his salary regularly, but had drawn upon the county funds whenever he left like it. During his term of office the report shows that his salary account was overdrawn frequently and that a few days before the report was made public Judge Lightfoot paid over $1,600 into the county treasury to balance his account. Mr. Hazellip inquired if Mr. Barkley if he knew of it, and why he did not see that he did his duty, but a response was not received from Mr. Barkley.

The financial condition of the county was brought forth in its true light, and by the figures Mr. Haze-llip showed every fund was overdrawn and that the county would have to borrow money to live over until the taxes for next year are received. Mr.
Barkley made no defense, and said the county could borrow money. Mr.
Hazellip then read the statute which makes it a violation of the law for any county to have its expenditures for a year exceed the revenue for that year. The closest attention was given Mr. Hazellip and for the first time many tax payers learned of the extravagance of the county machine.

In his speech Mr. Barkley criticized the Republican party from the national affairs down to the county politics. He criticized Governor Wilson and was vehement in his language in criticizing the governor for issuing a pardon to "Chicago Sadie." Mr.
Hazellip easily took Mr. Barkley into tow on that and he stated the fact that Judge Reed, Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett, Gus G.
Singleton, Democratic nominee for county clerk, and every member of the jury signed the application for the pardon of Carroll, alias "Chicago Sadie." Mr. Hazellip said the governor was imposed upon, as there was a long list of reputable names on the petition besides the ones he mentioned.

Mr. Hazellip gave the warmest assurance to the voters that if he were elected he would devote his best ability to the county to see that the funds were not stolen, and to see that every dollar was spent to the best advantage. He promised to get a capable county commissioner, who would really check the accounts of the treasurer and not recommend the report without reading it. He said the strictest economy would be used,
and that the prisoners in the county jail under hard labor sentences would be worked on the county roads, which could be done without any more expense than allowing the idle prisoners to remain in jail. But the work of the prisoners, he said, would not interfere in any way with the law giving every man the right to work out his road tax being obeyed.

In the election of the tax supervisors he said he wanted the people to rule, and would allow the people of each municipal district to select their supervisor and that he would appoint him. With an appeal that he would be fair, honest and give an economical and progressive administration, Mr. Hazellip closed his address and was greeted with an outburst of applause.

In filling the date at Melber the candidates invaded Graves county, as the school house is located over the line. Mr. Barkley was a former resident of Graves county and many of his enthusiastic admirers from Graves county were present to hear him and not because of any interest in the issues of the campaign. The audience was orderly and gave both speakers good attention. In his speech Mr. Hazellip made a decided impression in his promise for a business like administration. Tonight the speakers will address the voters at the Henderson school house while Thursday night the Hovekamp school house will be the center of activity.

A CASE FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

Mrs. Mary A. Brandon Has Immense Relief From One Bottle of Quaker Extract. After Suffering
For 18 Years.

For over 18 years Mrs. Mary A.
Brandon, who lives on the outskirts of this city, suffered untold agony from the ravages of rheumatism. She also had a bad case of stomach trouble which added to her sufferings. She doctored and treated continually without success, and was on the verge of having to go to her bed,
when her husband called on Fisher,
the Quaker Health Teacher, at Me-lpherson's drug store, and purchased a treatment of the Quaker Herb Extract and the Oil of Halm. She has now used less than one bottle and in so short time, reports that she has actually found more benefit from this remedy than from anything she has used during that long 18 years of suffering.

Mrs. Brandon will be only too glad to verify this report to any person in Paducah who wants to hear it from her own lips. Her mail address is General Delivery, Paducah, where you can write her a line.

When Fisher was asked if this did not seem remarkable about it in etar not seem remarkable, he said:
"Nothing remarkable about it in my estimation, for the same thing happens a great many times in every town I visit. Quaker Herb Extract is a pure herb remedy, containing no chemical or mineral poisons, therefore it does not force the organs to work, but instead it cleanses them of all poisons, and then assists nature to put them in proper condition to perform their functions naturally."

If you are ailing, dragging around every day, have become skeptical of all remedies because you have failed to receive any benefit from what you have used, you are the one Fisher wants to talk to. He will prove beyond the question of a doubt that the claims he has made and is now making are absolutely true. It costs nothing to talk to him. If he knows the Quaker remedies will not benefit you, he will lose no time in telling you so. Therefore come with confidence, and you will never regret it.
For catarrh in any form, rheumatism, liver, kidney, stomach or blood troubles, also for the expulsion of any worms, Quaker Extract is a cure—not just a temporary relief.

Fisher is at Melpherson's drug store corner Fourth and Broadway from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. daily.
Those who cannot call for the remedies may have them sent on receipt of the price. Quaker Herb Extract, $1.00; a for $2.50. Oil of Halm (Animent), 25c.

FIRE DEPARTMENT RESPONDS TO TWO ALARMS TODAY.

Two fire alarms alerted the fire department at 11:30 o'clock today.
The first fire was in the rear of Mrs.
E. R. Mills' millinery store, 314 Broadway. A rear porch on the second floor caught fire from a spark, but was extinguished with no loss.

In a few minutes an alarm was received from Sixteenth street and Georgetown avenue. The roof of Harvey Gambill's house caught fire, but the loss will amount to only a few dollars.

More than $50,000,000 worth of States every year.

Gumption

means "common sense" when needed most.

Under no circumstances is it needed more than in the selection of right food.

The one reliable food which supplies material for rebuilding the important gray substance of brain and nerve cells, is

Grape-Nuts

This food is made of wheat and barley by a process which changes the starchy part of the grains into "predigested" food material so that it is quickly absorbed and promptly begins rebuilding and building up waste tissue throughout the body.

Grape-Nuts is a "common sense" food.

a World of Good.

Telfer, Tex.—"I will now write to let you know how good Cardul did for me," writes Miss Queen Esther Robinson of this town.

"I suffered from womanly troubles
for four years and thought at times I would die with pain, but now, since taking Cardul, I am much better and I give Cardul all the praise. I will recommend Cardul to all my lady friends."

Only the purest vegetable ingredients, of mild and gentle action, are used in the preparation of Cardul, the woman's tonic.

Cardul contains no mineral poisons, or other dangerous drugs of any sort, hence we can depend upon its doing you nothing but good.

Its specific, curative action, on the cause of most womanly troubles, is proved by the wonderful results obtained in so many different forms of such troubles, described by the thousands of ladies, who have written to tell what it did for them.

Headache, backache, sideache, dragging sensations, irregularity,
cramps, nervousness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, are all symptoms of something wrong with the womanly organs.

Take Cardul. It will surely help you.

JOHNSON IS FLATTENED.

"Gunboat" Smith Treats Black Champion to a Big Surprise.

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—"Gun-boat" Smith, an able seaman, U. S. N., hunched his rating from a pugilistic gunboat to a real dreadnaught of the ring when, in the fourth round of his exhibition bout with Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion of the world, he knocked that pugilistic phenom to the canvas at Johnson's training quarters at the Seal Rock House.

And it was no fluke knockdown.
Coming out of a clinch near the end of the last round, "Gunboat" swung a right overhand chop which took Johnson flush on the chin. The negro went down as prettily as any fighter ever hit the mat in the ring, and when he got up he was dazed so much that George Little, Johnson's manager and time keeper, called time, cutting the round short fully a minute and seeing to it that the naval scrapper did not more sparring with the champion during the rest of the afternoon.

Smith had shown in the first three rounds that he boxed with Johnson and that he could reach him with a right overhand chop, and he landed this blow on Johnson quickly. Smith and Johnson slammed each other around good and hard, and the fans who visited the Seal Rock camp to see the sparring exhibition felt before the end of the second round of the Smith-Johnson bout was over that they were seeing the real thing.

From the moment he donned the gloves up to the last round Smith displayed little fear of Johnson's hitting ability, and he mixed punches with him at every opportunity.

BALLINGER GIVES LAND VIEWS.

Secretary of Interior Explains What Nation Must Do With Phosphate and Coal Properties.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 13.—Secretary of the Interior Richard A.
Ballinger, who has left here to investigate the Sierra water supply today gave out a statement giving his views on the reclamation service. He said:

"The disposition of the phosphate lands of the Rocky mountain states presents emergencies calling for legislation. All the known areas of phosphate lands in the public domain now are under temporary reservation awaiting congressional action. Common prudence demands that this fertilizer be disposed of with such restrictions as will require its domestic use so far as possible in the renewal of the fertility of the American farm rather than permit of its exportation.

"Respecting coal lands, since 1906 no coal land entries have been permitted to be made in Alaska pending requests upon congress for legislation to prevent the monopolization of the vast fields of this valuable deposit lying in this territory and to secure authority for permanent reservation for naval purposes.

"Too much cannot be said in favor of legislation which will prevent the absorption of valuable coal deposits by private interests with the design of monopolization."

The number of people killed while trespassing on railroads has been steadily increasing every year.

In 1898, 4,063 trespassers lost their lives on American railroads; five years later the number was 5,000, and in 1907 the number killed was 5,612, more than 15 each day.

The alarming death toll from trespassing on railroad property, which in ten years was nearly four-fifths of that suffered by the entire Union army during the Civil war, is every year charged up to the railroads. It is asserted, although the people were killed as a result of their violation of the law, and under conditions over which the railroads say they have no control.

It is declared that although the co-operation of state and county authorities has been solicited the actual punishment of persons violating the trespassing laws has been infrequent. In many cases the cost of imprisonment has deterred the local courts from holding those arrested.

James A. Story, almost ninety years old, has blossomed forth as the oldest chaffer in the United States.

He took out three other men over eighty for a ride in his automobile. The combined ages of these men is 347 years, the average being about eighty-six years and nine months.

The select company toured the town in fine style and the lady seemed to enjoy it.—China (N. Y.) Patriot.

A JOYFUL PASTIME.

It's Really a Pleasure to Cure Catarrh by Breathing Cate.

It isn't a pleasure to saturate your stomach with vile nostrums or to shock the tender membrane of the nose and throat with disagreeable sprays and douches.

But strange to say there are a few thousand people who do not keep abreast of the times who are hoping against hope that these ancient methods will rid them of catarrh.

If the readers of The Sun who suffer from catarrh want to banish this vile and disgusting disease forever go to W. J. Gilbert today and get a complete Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) outfit for $1.00.

If it doesn't cure it won't cost you a cent because W. J. Gilbert will give you your money back.

Hyomel is so simple and pleasant to use; pour a few drops from the bottle into the inhaler and breathe it in. As it passes over the membrane and into the lungs with the air you breathe it soothes the raw membrane and kills the catarrh germs. Don't experiment longer. Leading druggists everywhere sell Hyomel for catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc.

KILL THOUSANDS AS TRESPASSERS

RAILROADS RUN DOWN AN APPALLING NUMBER.

Efforts Will Be Made to Enforce Law Against General Walking on the Tracks.

47,116 IN THE LAST TEN YEARS

Trespassing on railroad property in violation of the law has been responsible for the death of 47,116 people in the United States during the last ten years, according to a compilation made by the Pennsylvania railroad. In the same period more than 50,000 trespassers were injured.

Seven thousand trespassers were killed on the lines of the Pennsylvania itself. As the Pennsylvania reported that for the calendar year 1908 not a passenger had been killed on the 23,000 miles of its system, these figures may explain the incredulity with which similar reports were received in some quarters from the western railroads.

In view of these facts many of the important railroads have determined to redouble their efforts to secure in this country that rigid enforcement of the law against trespassing which in England has reduced the practice and accidents to trespassers to a minimum.

The number of people killed while trespassing on railroads has been steadily increasing every year. In 1898, 4,063 trespassers lost their lives on American railroads; five years later the number was 5,000, and in 1907 the number killed was 5,612, more than 15 each day.

TO OUST TAMMANY IS THEIR AIM

EVEN THE REPUBLICANS ARE TURNING TO HEARST.

He Will Make a Whirlwind Campaign as He Did in Former Race.

TAMMANY SEES "A DEAL"

New York, Oct. 13.—The city's municipal campaign has resolved itself into a fight to oust Tammany from control of the finances. Both W. R. Hearst, whose name is now an additional asset to the Republican fusion ticket, and Otto T. Bannard have announced that their election is secondary to victory for the remainder of the fusion ticket for this will mean defeat for Tammany in the board of estimates which controls the spending of the municipal moneys.

Hearst's followers, now known as the Civic Alliance, having accepted his conditions that he head a ticket composed of the bulk of the Republican-fusion nominees already selected, arrangements to obtain the signatures requisite to make his nomination legal are already under way and the formal petition will probably be filed with the board of elections early next week.

It is for Hearst.

William M. Irvine, the Republican who ran against Hearst and McClellan four years ago, issued a statement supporting Hearst. It was through Irvine's efforts largely that Hearst was induced to enter this year's campaign, a circumstance that has caused Tammany to cry that a Republican-Hearst alliance is on foot.

Hearst's friends predict that he stands ready to make another whirlwind campaign such as he made in 1905, a campaign which was followed by the recount and much legal controversy, finally resulting in McClellan being declared elected by a rather slender plurality.

Bannard and the Republican leaders expressed nothing but satisfaction today at Hearst's entering the field. Maintaining that Bannard will be elected regardless, they profess to feel jubilant that Hearst has added strength to the remainder of the fusion ticket. All talk of Bannard's withdrawing and allowing Hearst to head the ticket to victory was denounced as preposterous. Bannard was in the race to stay, it was said and would win.

Tammany Charges "Deal."

Charles F. Murphy and other Tammany leaders continue to brand the entrance of Hearst as a "deal," but at the same time say that Justice William B. Traynor will be victorious.

Tammany, according to a report today, having already absorbed the old Independence League machinery tried to take the name and emblem of the new Civic Alliance today by filing a petition under that name with the board of elections. Under the law, the first party filing such a petition has a right to claim the title and emblem, but if this disrupts the plans of the new Hearst party no announcement to this effect has been made.

Justice Gaynor was outspoken in his expression of displeasure at Hearst's entry into the campaign. "I am going through experiences of breach of faith and plighted word that I did not deem possible in this world," he said, referring to Mr. Hearst's renunciation, coming within a few days after his published declaration that he would support the Brooklyn candidate.

Judge Gaynor's principal contribution to the situation today was an announcement that he had decided not to use a dollar in advertising his candidacy and would return all gifts of money proffered him for campaign purposes. He returned two such contributions—one of $500 and the other of $1,000—today with letters explaining his attitude. The larger gift came from Abraham Abraham a Brooklyn merchant, and was returned with a note of explanation.

CORN DUTY SUSPENDED.

Action Taken By Mexico Government to Replenish Supply.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 1.—In order to replenish the depleted supply of corn in the republic of Mexico, the duty on that cereal has been temporarily suspended.

Owing to the prevalence of severe droughts throughout the corn belt of Northern Mexico, followed later by unprecedented floods, both the growing crops and the supplies of corn in storage have been reduced to such an extent as to entail actual suffering owing to the scarcity of the article and consequent high prices. To obviate extortionate prices, the Mexican government has promulgated an order temporarily admitting corn from the United States free from duty.

The staple will be admitted free as long as necessity demands, and the duty will then be reimposed.

Many merchants in Mexico are telegraphing to brokers in the United States, ordering large shipments of corn, so as to avail themselves of the free entry of the cereal.

A Texan has patented a post card stand for dealers in which the cards are displayed at the ends of the spokes of a small Ferris wheel. By revolving it a customer may see all of them without handling.

PADUCAH AS THE HOST TO CAIROITES

ENTERTAIN WATERWAYS DELEGATES AT BREAKFAST.

And Then Take Them for an Automobile Ride Throughout the City.

ARE EN ROUTE TO CINCINNATI

Five of Cairo's most prominent and influential citizens, accompanied by Miss Snyder, of Canton, O., who has been visiting the family of Mayor George Parsons, arrived in Paducah at 7:25 this morning and were guests of the Commercial club at the Palmer House. They were met at Eleventh street and Broadway by Earl Palmer and Secretary S. A. Fowler and conveyed to the hotel, where an appetizing breakfast awaited them. They were entertained for a short time with an automobile ride over the city before leaving for Cincinnati, O., to attend the convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement association.

Composing the Cairo delegation were: Mayor George Parsons, vice-president of the association of Illinois; E. A. Smith, president of the Cairo Commercial club, president of the Cairo National bank and also vice-president of the improvement association; P. A. Langan, a prominent lumbar dealer and chairman of the Cairo board of trade; Phil Barclay, secretary of the Cairo board of trade and vice-president of the Alexander County bank; and W. M. Hurt, manager of the Rhodes-Burford establishment at Cairo. Miss Snyder is returning to her home in Canton. She is an attractive young woman and an accomplished violinist.

Seated at the breakfast table this morning were: Mayor Parsons, E. A. Smith, P. A. Langan, Phil Barclay, W. M. Hurt, Miss Snyder, Earl Palmer, C. S. Hookwater, S. A. Fowler, Major J. H. Ashcraft and James C. Utterback. The meal was concluded at 8:30 o'clock and at 9 o'clock the Cairo delegation and Miss Snyder enjoyed an hour's ride over the city. They were impressed with Paducah's growth and the beautiful residences.

At 11:25 o'clock this morning the Cairo people, accompanied by S. A. Fowler, J. H. Ashcraft, H. A. Petter and C. S. Hookwater, left for Cincinnati to attend the waterways convention, which will be held there tomorrow and Friday.

TEACHERS WRANGLE

AT LONE OAK TAKEN TO THE COURTS.

Miss Harrison Files Suit to Oust Miss Browning in Circuit Court.

At last the question to determine whether Miss Greenville Harrison or Miss Eleanor Browning was elected to the fourth grade of the consolidated school at Lone Oak has found its way into the courts. Miss Greenville Harrison with her brother, W. T. Harrison, has filed suit in circuit court against W. R. Davis, chairman of the division board No. 4, to force him to sign a contract with Miss Harrison, who alleges she was elected teacher of the school. Motion will be made in a few days for a trial immediately, and a warm battle is expected.

Miss Browning rests her claim on the fact that she was elected by a majority of the members present at a meeting, while at a later meeting the election was taken up again, and a tie vote resulted. Superintendent W. A. Middleton had not made bond at the time, and was present at the meeting, but could not take any part in the election. Two days later he qualified, and his first official act was to stay in his office and vote for Miss Harrison. Many people are of the opinion that neither Miss Browning nor Miss Harrison is elected regularly.

1,000 RAILROAD BUILDERS
LOSE LIVES IN THE STORM.

New Orleans, Oct. 13.—A wireless received today says at least a thousand men employed on the Florida East Coast railway were drowned in the storm. All were living in houseboats, which were sunk, the message says.

A man with a future and a woman with a past supply a lot of food for gossip.

DAMAGE WAS LESS THAN EXPECTED

THE HUNT OF GULF STORM WAS IN CUBA.

None of the Many Men Working On Keys Were Killed—Steamer Antilles Is Aground.

THE NEW RAILROAD IS SAFE.

Key West, Oct. 13.—The East Coast railway extension steamer Shekel arrived from Sugar Loaf, bringing the first direct news from thousands of men employed on the extension. The camps at Boca Chica and Sugar Loaf were destroyed, the grade thirty miles above Stock Island badly damaged but no loss of life.

Hundreds of homeless are roaming the streets here. The war department has instructed the commander of the coast artillery companies to aid the city authorities in every way possible. Tents and bedding are being distributed by the soldiers.

A sailor lost his life at the government wharf and three members of the crew of another steamer are missing.

Very Little Damage.
St. Augustine, Oct. 13.—Vice President Beckwith of the East Coast railway said:

"Not a life has been lost, and very little damage done on the extension. The line will be opened for traffic within 48 hours to Knight's Key."

Less Serious.
Havana, Oct. 13.—The effects of the storm appear considerably less serious than at first supposed. Apparently the brunt of the storm was in this vicinity.

Steamer Antilles Aground.
Houston, Tex., Oct. 13.—A wireless message to Port Arthur says: "The Southern Pacific Steamship Antilles, in ashore in latitude 24 43; longitude 79.07. Wants assistance to float the ship and help take off passengers."

NEWSPAPER MEN ARE DISCHARGED

JUDGE HOLDS ATTEMPT TO TRY THEM AT CAPITAL OUTRAGE.

Judge Declares He Has Curiosity to Know Whether There Was Graft or Not.

ISSUED A SCORCHING OPINION.

Indianapolis Ind., Oct. 13.—Federal Judge Anderson dismissed the proceedings against Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams, proprietors of the Indianapolis News, who were resisting removal to Washington for trial on charges of criminal libel in publishing articles alleging that there was a corrupt profit of $28,000,000 in the sale of the Panama canal to the United States.

"That man has read the history of our institutions to little purpose," said Judge Anderson, in conclusion, "who does not view with apprehension a proceeding which will permit citizens to be dragged from their homes to the seat of government under trial under the circumstances of the case. The defendants are discharged."

"I am of the opinion," said the judge, "that the fact that certain persons are called 'thieves' and 'swindlers' does not constitute a libel per se."

"As the former president said, it is the duty of the press to print the news and tell the truth about it. It is the duty of the newspapers to draw inferences from the people."

The court reviewed what it called "many peculiar circumstances about the whole Panama canal business," and added: "A great number of people thought there was something not just exactly right about that transaction, and I say for myself that I feel a natural curiosity to know what the real truth was. The committee of the senate appointed to investigate asked William Nelson Cromwell certain questions, but he stood upon his privilege as an attorney, and refused to answer."

The American Bridge company, Pittsburg, has announced that it has closed a deal by which it will ship a steel bridge entire from Pittsburg to Kansas City by water.

Haveport Democrat: "Again the ordinary of the raft boat is being written, as the half-a-dozen that have been piloting their way down the river the present season are led off to winter quarters. For lack of a forestry policy that could protect the white pine forests of the upper reaches of the Mississippi, in the days when the ax was held to them, the lumber industry of the valley had to go. And the raftboat has gone with it. There still remain the packet lines, however, the last barrier against the argument of the pessimist that the river has seen its best days and will never carry a commerce that is worth improving. For what they stand for, the packet lines deserve the encouragement of every city along the banks of the river. They bring trade to the cities, carry a certain amount of freight at a low cost and help to level the rates on all the freight that they do not carry. The river needs more boats, but a good beginning is made in taking proper care of the boats that we already have."

MORE FLOWERS ON MY GRAVE
Was the Message Brooklyn Woman Found in Cemetery.

New York, Oct. 13.—"Please do not put any more flowers on my grave" was the message on a piece of cardboard which Mrs. McDonald, of Brooklyn, found on the grave in Mount Olivet cemetery, on which for 15 years she had been placing flowers weekly.

Believing that it was the grave of a dear relative, Mrs. McDonald was indignant and protested to the superintendent of the cemetery. He looked up the records and found that her relative was really buried some distance from the grave which she had been so faithfully decorating.

JUDGE REED SENDS A CASE TO COUNTY COURT.

THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN SENT THERE SOONER.

An example of how prisoners are held over in police court and are kept in jail unable to give bond before they are given a trial, occurred this morning in circuit court. Rob Wyllie, colored, was indicted by the grand jury on the charge of petit larceny, being charged with stealing bottles from George Goodman & company. He was tried in police court and held over to the grand jury September 13. After a motion for a trial at the expense of the taxpayers, Wyllie was brought into circuit court this morning. He pleaded not guilty, and Judge Reed did not try the case but sent him to the county court for a trial.
